

Family conflicts children may face.

Children with brothers and sisters
may face conflicts due to:

Lack of privacy—————Sharing a bedroom,
no time to themselves

Control of the T.V.—————What shows to watch.

Telephone use—————"Hogging" the phone.

Clothes—————--Brothers or sisters borrowing clothes without asking.
Parents may not like
how the children dress.

Competition—————Competing for adult
attention or praise.
feelings of adults favoring
one child over another.

Homework/Housework——Parents tired of nagging children to do homework or housework.

Growing independence——define themselves and become more independent. Still have guidance from adults (even though they may not think they need it).

Preteen and teen years can be an emotional roller-coaster ride.
